The club runs from 6pm - 8pm every Wednesday in term time.

Group members are supported to build on their social and communication skills by taking part in fun games and activities tailored to explore their independence and build self-confidence.

Activities include:

- Cooking •Art •Drama •Group games and projects
- Yoga/movement •Listening to music
- Talking Topics - such as friendships, body language and bullying.

Outings to places our young people choose and which promote independence include:

- Theatres •Swimming •Bowling •Parks •Local community trips e.g Camden Town

Places are allocated by first come first served. One to one support available as necessary. Transport is NOT included.
